PAMA ADVISORY BOARD

Sharifa Riley is an emerging museum professional. She is currently working as a Curatorial Assistant and main Marketer at Black Artists' Network, Dialog Gallery and Cultural Centre, and as a Heritage Interpreter with the Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.

Her passion for art and history allows her to broaden the minds of all those she comes in contact with. She is determined and creative, and is looking forward to many years of helping people discover what their community has to offer.

Sharifa is a graduate from the University of Ottawa (B.A.) and Sir Sandford Fleming College (Post Graduate).
