PAMA ADVISORY BOARD

Baani Kaur Bhathal is a life-long resident of Peel Region. Currently, Baani is a teacher with the Peel District School Board and is interested in Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, particularly within the Region of Peel. Her Masters research explored the topic of equity within the school board. Baani enjoys hosting community arts events in Brampton for youth as well as helping non-profit organizations with their social media outreach, programming, and fundraising.

"I am honoured to bring my academic, professional, and volunteer expertise to the PAMA Board. As an educator, I understand and advocate for the importance of youth engagement with the arts. I'm particularly interested in lending my expertise in using social media as a community and youth outreach tool."
