

PAMA's Creative Access Fund Application

PAMA's Creative Access Fund supports a variety of programming at PAMA. It helps reduce the financial barriers allowing participants of all ages to engage, explore and connect with our collections through school field trips, events, workshops, and hands-on activities. Our goal is to ignite a lifelong relationship with art and history.

For individuals, financial funding may include the costs of admission, event, program or workshop.

For school groups, financial funding may include costs program, workshop or funds for transportation to and from PAMA for a school program (PAMA will provide funds for one school bus).

Subject to available funding.
